Blessing Day

Indian Tradition considers Blessings as the greatest act of generosity and wish given to the persons who are anticipating it. The Jain Tradition gives importance to the "GURU", the "TEACHER". Guru is a sacred one and kept in a respectful place in between the Parents and God. Forgiving the mischievousness & misconduct of their students and forgetting all the acts of Disobedience and Displeasures, with a noble heart and wishing them all prosperities is the sole idea of this Blessing Day. Blessing Day is celebrated on 31.3.2017 on last working day of the college. There were no dignitaries or Guests invited. It was the Secretary and members of Management, Director, Principal and all HOD's who blessed their final year students who were leaving for a life of prosperity, benevolence, to become dutiful and disciplined citizens.
