NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

National Girl Child Day was celebrated in our college virtually on 29.1.2022. On the topic of Girls Empowerment through Education in the Present Society by Sub LT R Dhanalakshmi, Associate NCC Officer Navy, Asst. Prof. Dept. of English, Velammal Engineering College, Chennai.

In her address she delivered about Rani Velunachiar (3 January 1730 – 25 December 1796) was a queen of the Sivaganga estate from c. 1780–1790. She was the first Indian queen to wage war with the East India Company in India. She is known by Tamils as Veeramangai ("brave woman"). With the support of the Haider Alis Army, feudal lords, marudhu brothers, Dalit commanders, and thandavarayan Pillai she fought the East India company. She also quoted Malala for her fight for girls — from an education activist in Pakistan. She advised the students to become educated, bold, and brave to face society.
